Section G: Entitlement to Award

This section is optional. Use this section to explain the basis for your belief that you are entitled to an award in connection with your submission of information to us or to another agency in connection with a Related Action. Specifically address how you believe you voluntarily provided the Commission with original information that led to the successful enforcement of a judicial or administrative action filed by the Commission, or a related action. Refer to Rules 21F-3 and 21F-4 under the Exchange Act for further information concerning the relevant award criteria. You may attach additional sheets, if necessary.

Rule 21F-6 under the Exchange Act provides that in determining the amount of the award, the Commission will consider certain factors in determining the amount of an award based on the unique facts and circumstances of each case. The Commission considers the following positive factors: (i) the significance of the information you provided to the success of the proceeding brought against wrongdoers; (ii) the extent of the assistance you provide in our investigation and any successful proceeding; (iii) the law enforcement interest in deterring violations of the securities laws by making awards to whistleblowers who provide information that leads to the successful enforcement of these laws; and (iv) whether, and the extent to which, you participated in your company's internal compliance systems, such as, for example, reporting the possible securities violations through internal whistleblower, legal or compliance procedures.

The Commission also considers the following negative factors: (i) if you were a participant in, or culpable for the securities law violation(s) you reported; (ii) if you unreasonably delayed reporting the violation(s) to us; and (iii) if you interfered with your company's internal compliance and reporting systems, such as, for example, making false statements to your compliance department that hindered its efforts to investigate possible wrongdoing. Additional information about the criteria the Commission may consider in determining the amount of an award is available on the Commission's website at www.sec.gov/whistleblower.
