Your Claim Number: P8XH9WUZBM

Dear Tinika S Warren:

You filed a claim for more than 10 hours of total time spent and money spent in connection with the Equifax Data Breach.

Your claim is incomplete because you did not provide supporting documentation. If you submitted a claim for more than 10 hours of total time spent and money spent in connection with the Equifax Data Breach, you must provide supporting documentation showing that the time was spent in connection with the Equifax Data Breach.

Please provide documentation showing unreimbursed money you lost or spent, and/or relating to the time you spent in connection with the Equifax Data Breach. For example, you can provide credit card statements or bank statements showing transactions for freezing your credit report, police reports, and invoices from lawyers or accountants.

You must submit supporting documentation to complete your claim by April 18, 2022.*If you do not provide supporting documentation, your claim for more than 10 hours of total time spent and money spent in connection with the Equifax Data Breach will be denied.

The documentation must show your name, the date, where the documentation is from, what happened, and how much time and money was spent in connection with the Equifax Data Breach.

Written statements by you describing the money you lost or spent, or the time you spent, are not enough to complete your claim.

Please add your Claim Number (provided above) to all supporting documents you submit. Please only submit one set of supporting documentation.
