Thank you for contacting us.

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) enforces various laws which prohibit employment discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), national origin, age (40 or older), disability, or genetic information. From the information you provided in your e-mail, it does not appear that your situation is covered by the laws we enforce.

You can find additional information about other federal agencies that may be of assistance at <https://www.usa.gov/> or by calling 1-844-872-4681.

We hope this information is helpful.

Sincerely,

U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission

Thank you for contacting the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. This automated response confirms receipt of your inquiry and is not intended to address your specific questions. For those of you wishing to file a charge of employment discrimination, please note that there is a time limit of either 180 or 300 days to file a charge, depending on a number of factors. If you want to begin the process, you can use our online assessment tool at US EEOC. You can not file a charge via email. We will respond to your specific questions as quickly as possible.
